What is a DOMESTIC missionary? (Mark all the answers that apply)

- They do housework while telling people about Jesus.
- Someone who tells people about Jesus in the United States.
- People who are not as 'wild' as missionaries who go to other countries (they are 'domesticated')
- It describes people who share the love of Jesus with people in places that are not that far away like Dallas, Texas, or Phoenix, Arizona.

A 'domestic missionary' is someone who lives in the United States or Canada and often works in shelters, soup kitchens, health clinics and other organizations or places that meet the needs of a disadvantaged community. They share the love of Jesus not only through their words, but through their actions as well.

Matthew 28:19-20 tells us, "Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely, I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

We are ALL called to be missionaries!

As you PRAY for the missionaries on the front of this page, color where they are located on the map below.
